

WORKING FOR SAUCE

Who are we?

Sauce Recruitment has earned a strong reputation as a leading specialist recruiter for Finance, Sales, Marketing and Content, Digital and Office Support staff within Media, Entertainment, fashion and retail brands.

The company has experienced phenomenal growth over the past few years, and is set to continue expanding over the coming years.

First and foremost you will be joining a supportive and structured environment. Our working environment is fun, sociable and professional. We reward success exceptionally well financially, however we never forget that success is also illustrated by career progression and continued learning. Whatever your motivations Sauce Recruitment is the perfect platform to achieve your goals.

Financial rewards

There is no secret to the fact that in recruitment commission is a large part of a consultant's package. We run an exceptionally strong and achievable commission structure that (once you have completed the training / probation scheme) can see you earning potential rise substantially. We also offer various other fantastic incentives, team days out to lunches etc.

Professional development

Recruitment is very much a sales driven career, and as a result the transferrable skills you can gain are valuable in a huge number of careers. Throughout your training you will learn and develop strong negotiating skills, client development skills and an exceptional phone manner. All of these will assist you greatly whether you choose to continue a career in recruitment, or within any business setting in which you choose to work in the future.

Who will you be?

Recruitment is not easy work. You will be dedicated to achieving your goals and need to work hard at a number of things, including developing your sales skills and understanding the area you work within. However the rewards are certainly there, not only financially, but also personally and professionally.

Whilst you may not have sales experience or the technical knowledge in line with our markets don't let this put you off. We are always looking for good recruiters to join our team.

Look at it this way; if you are willing to work hard, listen and learn, take feedback and seek information, have a proactive approach and you appreciate good customer service, then you will fit into the Sauce Recruitment Team.

What we're all about

No Glass Ceilings
